PREDEPARTURE, ARRIVAL & ACCOMMODATION (Temporary and Permanent)
Pre-departure, Arrival and Orientation	Useful advice and information that will help you prepare for your travel and arrival can be found at the following link: http://www.newcastle.edu.au/students/international/student-support/arrival/
On-Campus Accommodation 	The newly refurbished Student Accommodation Hub (formerly Evatt House) is now open and all initial enquiries about on campus student accommodation and information about off campus student accommodation should be directed to the Student Accommodation Hub. For further advice please contact: AccommodationEnquiry@newcastle.edu.au If a student wishes to live on-campus it is strongly recommended that they apply early and follow the steps at the following link: http://www.newcastle.edu.au/service/accommodation/on-campus/prospective-residents/How-to-apply/ Information about the residences on-campus can be found at: http://www.newcastle.edu.au/service/accommodation/on-campus/index.html Please be aware that places are limited and demand constantly high. Therefore, there is no guarantee of success and it is recommended that students also look into off campus accommodation as a backup.
Off-Campus Accommodation 	For those students who do not get placed on campus or don't want live on campus, the Accommodation Service has an comprehensive database and accommodation guide, which offers access to an abundance of quality housing that surrounds the University and Newcastle area. Consequently there is an opportunity for students to live closer to the beach and night life. For more information visit: http://www.newcastle.edu.au/service/accommodation/off-campus/index.html Further enquiries can be directed to AccommodationEnquiry@newcastle.edu.au
Commencing Studies	General information to get ready for classes can be found at: http://www.newcastle.edu.au/students/new/
MISCELLANEOUS
Study Abroad Tuition Fees 	http://www.newcastle.edu.au/students/international/our-programs/study-abroad/ The Study Abroad program has a fixed cost and you can take between 30 – 50 units per semester.  If you are coming to the University of Newcastle via a partner institution or agent, please see your Student Advisor. * Exchange students are exempt from tuition fees (a nomination from your home institution is required for the fee waiver to apply).
Compulsory Overseas Health Cover (OSHC)	The current cost is AU$210 for one semester or AU$420 for two semesters. Cost of cover for year abroad which crosses separate academic years (ie. July-June) will now cost AU$455. The difference in cost reflects the additional months of cover required (ie. February-November = 10 months, July-June = 12 months) The Letter of Offer will detail when this payment is required. For further information please visit Worldcare Overseas Health Cover https://www.oshcworldcare.com.au/Default.aspx and/or the Department of Health & Aging.
University Health Service	The University Health Service is a fully accredited general practice staffed by doctors and nurses who understand the medical problems of students. The Health Service provides both emergency and routine medical care to all students and staff as well as visitors. For more info, visit http://www.newcastle.edu.au/service/health/
International Student Support 	The University's International Student Support Team provides a range of welfare and support services, which are designed to give you access to information that will make your time at the university a rich and academically rewarding experience. The team also offers practical and personal support to students who find themselves in unfamiliar circumstances and who need local advice and help. Their contact email is international-support@newcastle.edu.au and more information can be found at http://www.newcastle.edu.au/students/international/student-support/

Disability Support 	The Disability Support Service offers practical assistance and advice to students with a permanent or temporary disability or medical condition. If students are experiencing difficulties with their studies due to the effects of their disability they can register with the Disability Support Service. Students must provide appropriate documentation and may be eligible for a range of support and assistance. For more info, visit http://www.newcastle.edu.au/service/disability/
Counselling Service	The Counselling Service is available to students free of charge, on a confidential basis at each of the campuses of the University of Newcastle. Counselling Service staff are available to clarify and resolve a range of issues, which might otherwise interfere with academic or personal effectiveness. For more info visit http://www.newcastle.edu.au/service/counselling/
Student Visa  Australian Government	To study in Australia you will require a student visa. When you apply to study at the University of Newcastle and have been issued with a Letter of Offer, you need to 'Accept' the offer (Details will be provided in Letter of Offer). Once you have accepted the offer you will be issued by email, an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCOE). This verifies to the Australian Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) that you are a legitimate student. To find out how to apply for a student visa, other visa options or have further visa enquiries, please visit: http://www.immi.gov.au/students/index.htm
